

The only good part of this proposal is the elimination of element # 1 from the technician plus requirement. The rest of the proposal sucks to put it bluntly. The FCC needs to remove the morse code requirement totally from the amateur radio requirements. Thanks.